

but she declined to do so, and continued to earn her own living. Buried Him in Woods.

"Again Fitzpatrick went away, and Phil Harris joined him. They wandered about a month or so and got as far as Bluefield, W. Va. One night the two tried to board a train to help them on their journey, when Fitzpatrick slipped, fell under the wheels and was killed. Harris jumped from the train and pulled his mangled body a little away from the track into the woods and buried it with a forest tree for a headstone. He noticed this tree that he might know it again should friends of the deceased wish to remove the body.

"Many months thereafter Harris saw Dennis Martin of this city, in a Kentucky town, and the latter asked what became of Fitzpatrick. Harris told him of the story.

Applied for Divorce.

"Not having heard from her husband in a long time Mrs. Fitzpatrick decided to apply to the courts for a divorce. Through Hiltson W. Goodwyn, of Manchester, her counsel, she brought suit for divorce in the Law and Equity Court of this city. After the case had progressed considerably, Mrs. Fitzpatrick one day heard a report that her husband had been killed. It was only a rumor, but the proceedings were stopped and an experienced detective was set to work to trace the movements of the missing man and learn whether or not the report was true. Dennis Martin, of 1016 Randolph Street, has returned to the city and informed Mrs. Fitzpatrick of the interview with Harris, and that her husband had been dead for years.

"He says there is not the slightest doubt about it, and upon his testimony the suit for divorce will be dismissed from the court docket."

Sure He Is the Man.

There is no question of Fitzpatrick's identity. He was readily recognized by old acquaintances, and those who were in doubt were immediately satisfied that it was "Denny" Fitzpatrick, or "Pigeon," as he was known, by a peculiar birthmark on the neck.

WILSON EXPLAINS TARIFF POSITION

about the Democratic party program: "The thing that has created the trusts, that has created the monopoly is unregulated unfair competition. If we can only bring it about that new comers shall have a free field, then we can take care of the gentlemen in the trusts, because then the most intelligent competitor will get the market, and the little man can grow big, instead of making himself big by the legislation of Congress and by special favors from the government. "He can do that by having Federal law thread all this system of ours with statutes which shall make it criminal to do what these gentlemen did to build up their monopolies, and which will see to it that the men who did commit the offense have time to think it over in some building from which they will not for some time come out.

"I am not afraid that the penitentiaries will be crowded, but as soon as the law takes hold of this thing and men are behind the law who want to injure industry in particular, but to administer justice to everybody, then special favors will be withdrawn and there will be another face upon affairs in America."

The Governor and his party reached Pittsburgh at 5:15 o'clock, and went to a banquet at the Wilson Club of Allegheny County. A big rally at Duquesne Garden followed, after which the Governor left for New York.

Great Demonstration

The wildest and most sustained demonstration that Governor Wilson has had in his campaign greeted him at Duquesne Garden. When he rose to speak there were great cheers, but the applause was almost continuous throughout the speech of forty-five minutes. The Governor's address was a series of short sentences and epigrams, which the enthusiastic crowd constantly punctuated with applause. Once the crowd rose in the middle of the speech and began a demonstration that lasted for several minutes. The Governor talked mostly about the tariff, and said that out of the "garden of tariff schedules" only the "weeds" would be eliminated, but that no legitimate enterprise would suffer.

Peoples Declared Candidate.

Columbia, S. C., October 18.—The State Democratic Executive Committee met to-day and declared Thomas H. Peoples the nominee for Attorney-General. The official vote was: For Peoples, 25,417; Attorney-General Fraser, 12,407.

Five counties did not make any reports, and in many instances it was reported that no provision for voting was made.

ATTACKS ROOSEVELT

Grand Island, Neb., October 18.—Governor Marshall, who stopped here this afternoon on his 1,000-mile speaking trip to the Pacific Coast, was applauded when he attacked Colonel Roosevelt's action in the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company case, declaring that J. P. Morgan "threw a fit into President Roosevelt, and thereupon President Roosevelt violated his oath of office as chief executive."

He also attacked Republican tariff theories at a big open-air meeting. He tossed a large piece of English suiting goods into the crowd, and with the figures of a New York importer as a basis for his argument, declared that such material could be bought in Nebraska for less than one-half the Nebraska price if the tariff were reduced.

MEXICO IN HIGH STATE OF TENSION

Government Is Thoroughly Alarmed Over Revolution Headed by Diaz.

Mexico City, October 18.—News of developments in the new zone of rebel operations is now reaching the capital only in piecemeal fashion, and that is delayed from forty-eight to seventy-two hours. On account of this practical isolation from news, the capital is in a high state of tension. Official denials of reports of insubordination in the army at various places have not wholly reassured the residents.

No certain information is available here to-night as to who is in control of the gunboats at Vera Cruz. The best information that can be had, however, points to their being in the possession of Diaz.

The cable service has been resumed, but owing to the censorship at Vera Cruz, it is practically impossible here to learn the real situation beyond the rebel lines. Censorship over incoming and outgoing messages over the Federal lines renders reliable news from points in the republic difficult to procure.

It is believed here that Diaz will accede to the request not to fight at Vera Cruz, in which case the Federalists expect to compel him to face them a few miles inland. American Consul Canada has protested against fighting at Vera Cruz. The popularity of Diaz is not diminishing, and it is generally believed that nine-tenths of the rebel forces are willing to align themselves under his banner. It is also conceded that Orozco desires to cooperate with Diaz.

Great surprise is manifested here that the army remains loyal. It is suggested that defections may come at the hour of battle.

After the Conspirators.

Mexico City, October 18.—Orders were issued here to-day for the arrest of sixteen men for alleged complicity in the revolt of Felix Diaz. All are said to be prominent in public life. Up to 3 o'clock this afternoon only one had been taken into custody. He is Hernandez Fernandez Castiello, a son of the Minister of Justice, under the regime of President Porfirio Diaz. Documents found when his house was searched are said to implicate Diaz, Granados, Minister of the Interior, under the de la Barra regime, and many others of high standing.

Port Is Closed.

Galveston, Tex., October 18.—Official notification that the port of Vera Cruz, Mexico, had been closed by the Mexican government was received to-day by Caesar Canzo, Mexican consul at this port.

A close watch is being kept along the Texas coast for possible filibustering expeditions.

Keeping in Close Touch.

Washington, October 18.—To keep in closer touch with the situation at the rebel invested city of Vera Cruz and along the Gulf coast of Mexico, the Navy Department yesterday recalled the cruiser Des Moines, to return to Vera Cruz, to-day directed Commander Edward V. Durell, of the cruiser Tacoma, now down at Bluefields, Nicaragua, to steam for Tampico.

Stormy Session of Chamber.

Mexico City, October 18.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day adopted a resolution of confidence in the administration after a stormy session, which was full of invective directed against President Madero and his ministers. The action of the chamber came after the rejection of a measure which had been proposed Wednesday demanding resignation of the Cabinet.

Federals Enlist in Cause.

Vera Cruz, October 18.—Much alarm was caused last night by a report that government troops were approaching to attack Vera Cruz. All the rebel forces rallied forth in the direction of Boca del Rio to engage the Federals. On the way they met a band of eighty Federals, who were coming to Vera Cruz from Juchitan. A conference took place, and at its conclusion the Federals joined the rebels. The above is the only dispatch received from Vera Cruz Friday.

HEAVY DAMAGE DONE BY TYPHOON

Authorities Believe 400 Persons Were Killed in Island of Cebu.

Manila, October 18.—The typhoon which swept several of the islands of the Philippine group October 16 caused many deaths and heavy damage to property. A telegram received here by the military authorities estimates that 400 persons were killed and that damage amounting to $5,000,000 was done in the island of Cebu.

The typhoon was of hurricane force and leveled thousands of houses. Vessels were swept ashore or sunk and their crews drowned. Many Americans and Filipinos are homeless. Many vessels were lost in the vicinity of Cebu and several sunk in the harbor. The lighthouse there was badly damaged.

Reports from Visayas say the storm was unusually severe there. Telegraph wires are down, and details from the interior are lacking.

The government is dispatching a relief steamer to Cebu and Visayas. It is found, in addition to the loss of life and the wrecking of property, severe damage was done by the storm to the sugar, rice and hemp crops.

Remarkable Christmas Present

Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be one for a man of national reputation, which has been all year in the making.

Way last January the present was decided upon, and a very prompt and efficient request was made to the Burdette Press Clipping Bureau, of New York, to watch every paper in America and to take up every item which appeared concerning the man.

The clipping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this special man.

The history ends just after election, and the 20,542 newspaper items found include everything from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been printed on 2,206 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massive volumes.

At the head of each item is the name and date of the paper from which the information having been clipped in with a book typewriter. The words thus inserted amount to 155,252.

In actual time, a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days throughout the year, and has kept in employment during that time thirty people, as readers, clipper, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newspaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which go in to which clippings are used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable.

There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press clippings and don't know it. It might be well for them to look up this man Burdette, whose name is a hint of "Burdette, New York," with reach him with an order.

COLONEL RELATES HIS IMPRESSIONS

at first, I suppose," he said. "But I'll make some good ones."

The Colonel paused for a moment. He set his jaw hard and clenched his fists for the only time during the interview.

"I ask no quarter," he said. "It is amusing to see the predicament of Governor Marshall," he added, with a laugh. "The Governor has been making his campaign on the assertion that I was not at San Juan Hill. This may stagger him, but in a week I will discover that I was not shot at all, and that anyway it was a rebel shot, and that it hit another man instead of me, and finally that I was in Oshkosh that night."

Colonel Roosevelt expected, he said, to bring the campaign to a close just as if he had not been shot. He hoped to be able to put in a week of campaigning and say "a few things," although he might be unable to travel as he had been doing, making sometimes a dozen speeches in a day. His physicians told him probably he could leave for Oyster Bay on Monday or Tuesday, and the Colonel at once made up his mind he would go on the earliest train Monday, which would suit his purposes.

Despite his confidence that he will be back in the night week after next, the Colonel has not yet received assurances that he will be able to make a single speech. A week of absolute rest at Sagamore Hill comes first, and it will depend upon his progress then what comes next.

Colonel Roosevelt spoke of the visit of Governor Hiram Johnson, his running mate, who spent a short time with him this afternoon. He said there was little he could say about the conversation, and that they had not "talked much politics."

The effect of Colonel Roosevelt's exertion was beginning to show, he said. At the outset of the talk he bore himself in a way which gave no indication of his weariness. But finally he spoke in lower tones. At last he let his hands fall to his knees. It was his sign that his interview was over.

"Good-bye," he said.

While Colonel Roosevelt's physicians were careful to say that their patient was not yet out of danger, they were distinctly more optimistic than at any previous time. The passage of the day brought to an end the period within which symptoms of blood poisoning were to be looked for.

Colonel Roosevelt's condition was virtually unchanged throughout the day, with no indication of the development of sepsis—the one thing most to be feared. There still remained the possibility of complications in the shape of tetanus, pneumonia or pleurisy, but with the danger of blood poisoning removed, it was felt the chances were greatly in favor of rapid recovery.

Colonel Roosevelt's temperature fell late today to 98, three-fifths of a degree below normal. This was explained as being the result of his exertions during the day, and natural under the circumstances.

Schrank Shows Interest.

Milwaukee, Wis., October 18.—Colonel Roosevelt's assailant, John Schrank, exhibited to-day for the first time an interest in Colonel Roosevelt's condition when J. Bailey, sentenced ninety days, was brought into the tier of cells where Schrank is confined. Papers containing news of the attack have been denied the prisoner, and for that reason he did not know the condition of his victim.

"Is Roosevelt still alive?" he asked Bailey, who answered in the affirmative. Schrank did not reply, and walked back to his cell.

The prisoner spent a very quiet day in the small inclosure to which he is confined, saying he was "willing to take whatever is coming to him." He has made his will. It was learned to-day through a fellow-prisoner. One of its provisions is that the missile which probably would have killed Colonel Roosevelt be placed in the double manuscript and metallic spectacle case through which it passed, be given to any historical society and placed upon exhibition with the gun in the rotunda of the Capitol Building in Albany.

Schrank, the deputy says, told one of his fellow-prisoners that he desired the bullet and revolver to be a constant reminder to posterity of the "danger of attempting to violate third-term tradition."

GREECE IS LOYAL TO BALKAN ALLIES

Leaving brought forth no unfriendly manifestation.

Doubt prevailed up to the last moment whether Greece finally would throw in her lot with the Balkan allies. It is an unquestionable fact that the Turkish government made serious efforts to have Greece withdraw her allegiance to the confederation. It seems probable, however, that Turkey was prompted chiefly by a desire to gain time, in view of the superiority of the Greek fleet in the Aegean Sea. Turkey also at the last moment offered to send a new minister to Athens—one more acceptable than Mukhtar Bey—but this effort, likewise, proved futile.

Important Point Taken.

Sofia, October 18.—The Bulgarian army to-day occupied Kourkna, an important strategic point near Mustafa Pacha, which is in the Turkish territory twenty miles northwest of Adrianople.

Pence Treaty Signed.

Lucerne, Switzerland, October 18.—The final draft of the treaty of peace between Turkey and Italy was signed at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The peace treaty is in terms such as would be imposed by victor upon vanquished. Not only have Turkish susceptibilities carefully been safeguarded in the text, but the Ottoman government have succeeded in obtaining from Italy concessions regarding capitulations (judicial jurisdiction over Moslems) and customs duties, as well as a disguised indemnity. Upon these concessions Turkey depends greatly to offset the decree of the Sultan granting independence to Tripoli and Cyrenaica without even a hint of recognizing the right of Italy to acknowledge her law of annexation of a unitary character, thereby being so on the part of the Porte to approve Italy's procedure.

The subjects of annexation and independence find no place in the whole document of Turkey, in indirectly signaling away of the great territory, is found in the clause providing for the withdrawal of the Turkish troops and civil officials from Tripoli and Cyrenaica. Even this provision is similar to that requiring Italy at once to evacuate the Libyan land.

before the Clapp committee to-day, was referred to George D. Perkins, who figured in the list as the apparent contributor of $50,000, the now chairman of the National Progressive Executive Committee declined to comment.

"I have not seen the list," declared Mr. Perkins. He would not say whether the figures as given were right. "I expect to appear before the Clapp committee on Monday," said Mr. Perkins.

Chairman Charles D. Hilles, of the Republican National Committee, also gave out a brief statement with reference to Medill McCormick's charge before the Clapp committee that Mr. Hilles had been one whose "falsehoods incited weak-minded men to actual assassinations, in which he said: 'It is regrettable that any man should attempt to politically capitalize the deplorable incident which has shocked and brought sorrow to every American.'"
